Foreword

In Shakespeare's words, "The whole world is a stage," so then is high school, four of the most important acts in this play called "Life."

Freshmen enter high school with anxiety to learn the parts that they will play during their first year.

The Sophomores have had one year of viewing from behind the stage, and now they are anxious to join with the rest of the cast and become a more active part of making the 1961-62 school year a success.

The Juniors are understudies of the Seniors. They are finally realizing that the play "High School" has just one more act left for them. They work hard while producing the scenes for their spectacle, the Junior-Senior Prom. The class rings arrive, and to them it is a symbol that they are a part of Graham High School.

The final act comes much too quickly for the Seniors. Every event is the last one of that type that these "old pros" will ever encounter. They who still remember their first pep rally will soon add to their collection of cherished memoirs, the remembrance of their last pep rally. Friends who have weathered the storms of life together for twelve years will now go their separate ways to begin a new act in their lives.

"High School" is a never-to-be-forgotten series of acts in a person's life; for from these four years many impressions are made on one's personality which will perhaps mold his character for the rest of his life. So now let us journey by page through the four acts of this year in our 1961-62 WAG.

Dedication

Only once or twice in his high school career, will a person find a teacher who inspires him and is also his friend. Such a person is rare. Many teachers have the power to command respect or to be a friend, but few can combine the two.

This person has made a lasting impression on us. Through his tireless aid and kind guidance, we have grown to rely on him. He has shown patience with our problems, has recognized us as individuals, and has been interested in us at all times.

We, the Class of 1962, dedicate the 1962 WAG to our teacher and friend, Mr. Richard Uzzell.

In Honor Of

Mere words cannot describe the devotion that we feel toward a man who spent so many hours and days making our stay at Graham High School a treasured memory. No other person has held the respect of so many. Even though a man of quiet nature, he always received the full attention of the Student Body, and his ideas were influential in all decisions.

Only once or twice in a lifetime do you meet a person who profoundly influences your life. His love for the students, his sense of right that compels honesty and truth, and his challenging spirit toward the occurrences of life make us stop and remember. These, and many other qualities allow us to fondly present the 1962 WAG IN HONOR OF Mr. Needham G. Bryan.

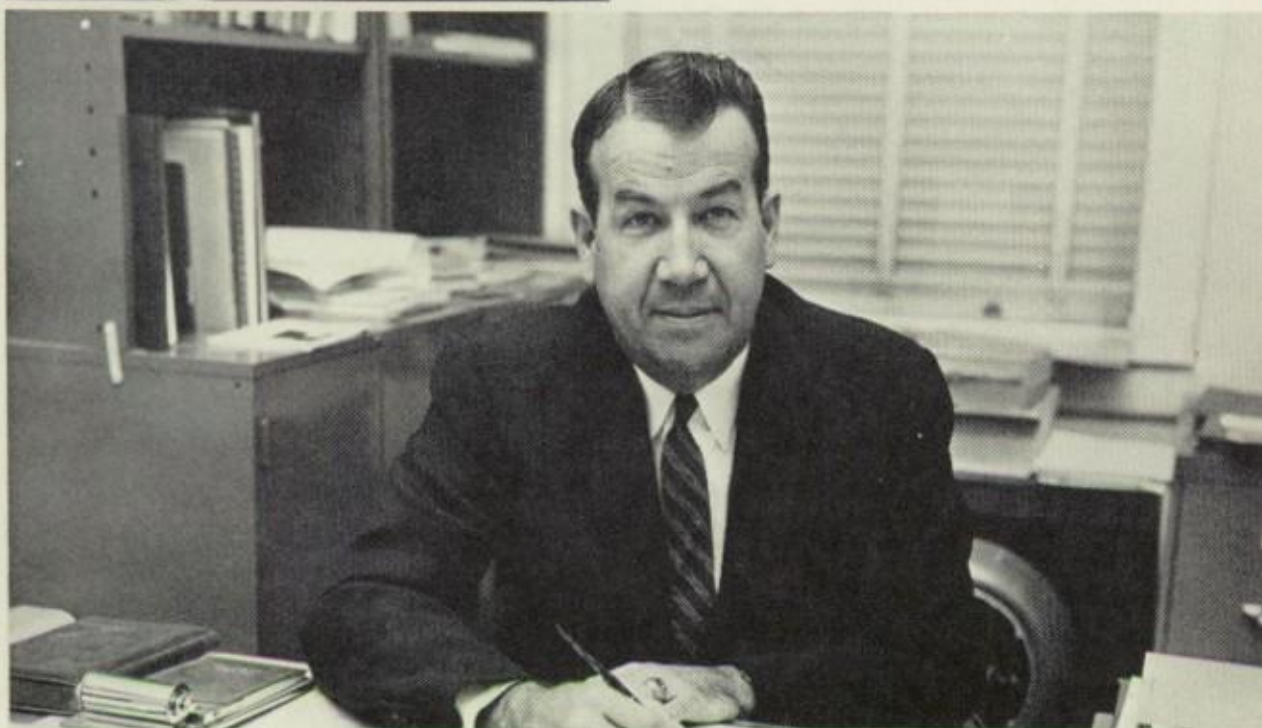

The School Board Members are Mr. J. A. Albright, chairman; Mr. Peter Harden, Mr. J. C. Swanner, Dr. Grady Wheeler, and Dr. C. S. Crissman.

Senior Sponsors

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Price

Mrs. Ann Walker

We of the Senior Class of 1962 would like to express our appreciation to these two faithful sponsors who have helped to make our Senior Year more pleasant.

They have aided us in several group projects with their enthusiasm and desire to help. Through their counseling, many of our academic as well as our personal problems have been solved.

Mrs. Price and Mrs. Walker, again we say "Thanks!"

A cheery hello, a sincere smile, and a never ending good spirit captured for Pam Moore and Dwight Rayfield the titles of FRIENDLIEST.

The SWEETEST superlative was awarded to Earlene Holt and Danny Euliss. The consideration for others that these two Seniors had for their fellow classmates won for them this honor.

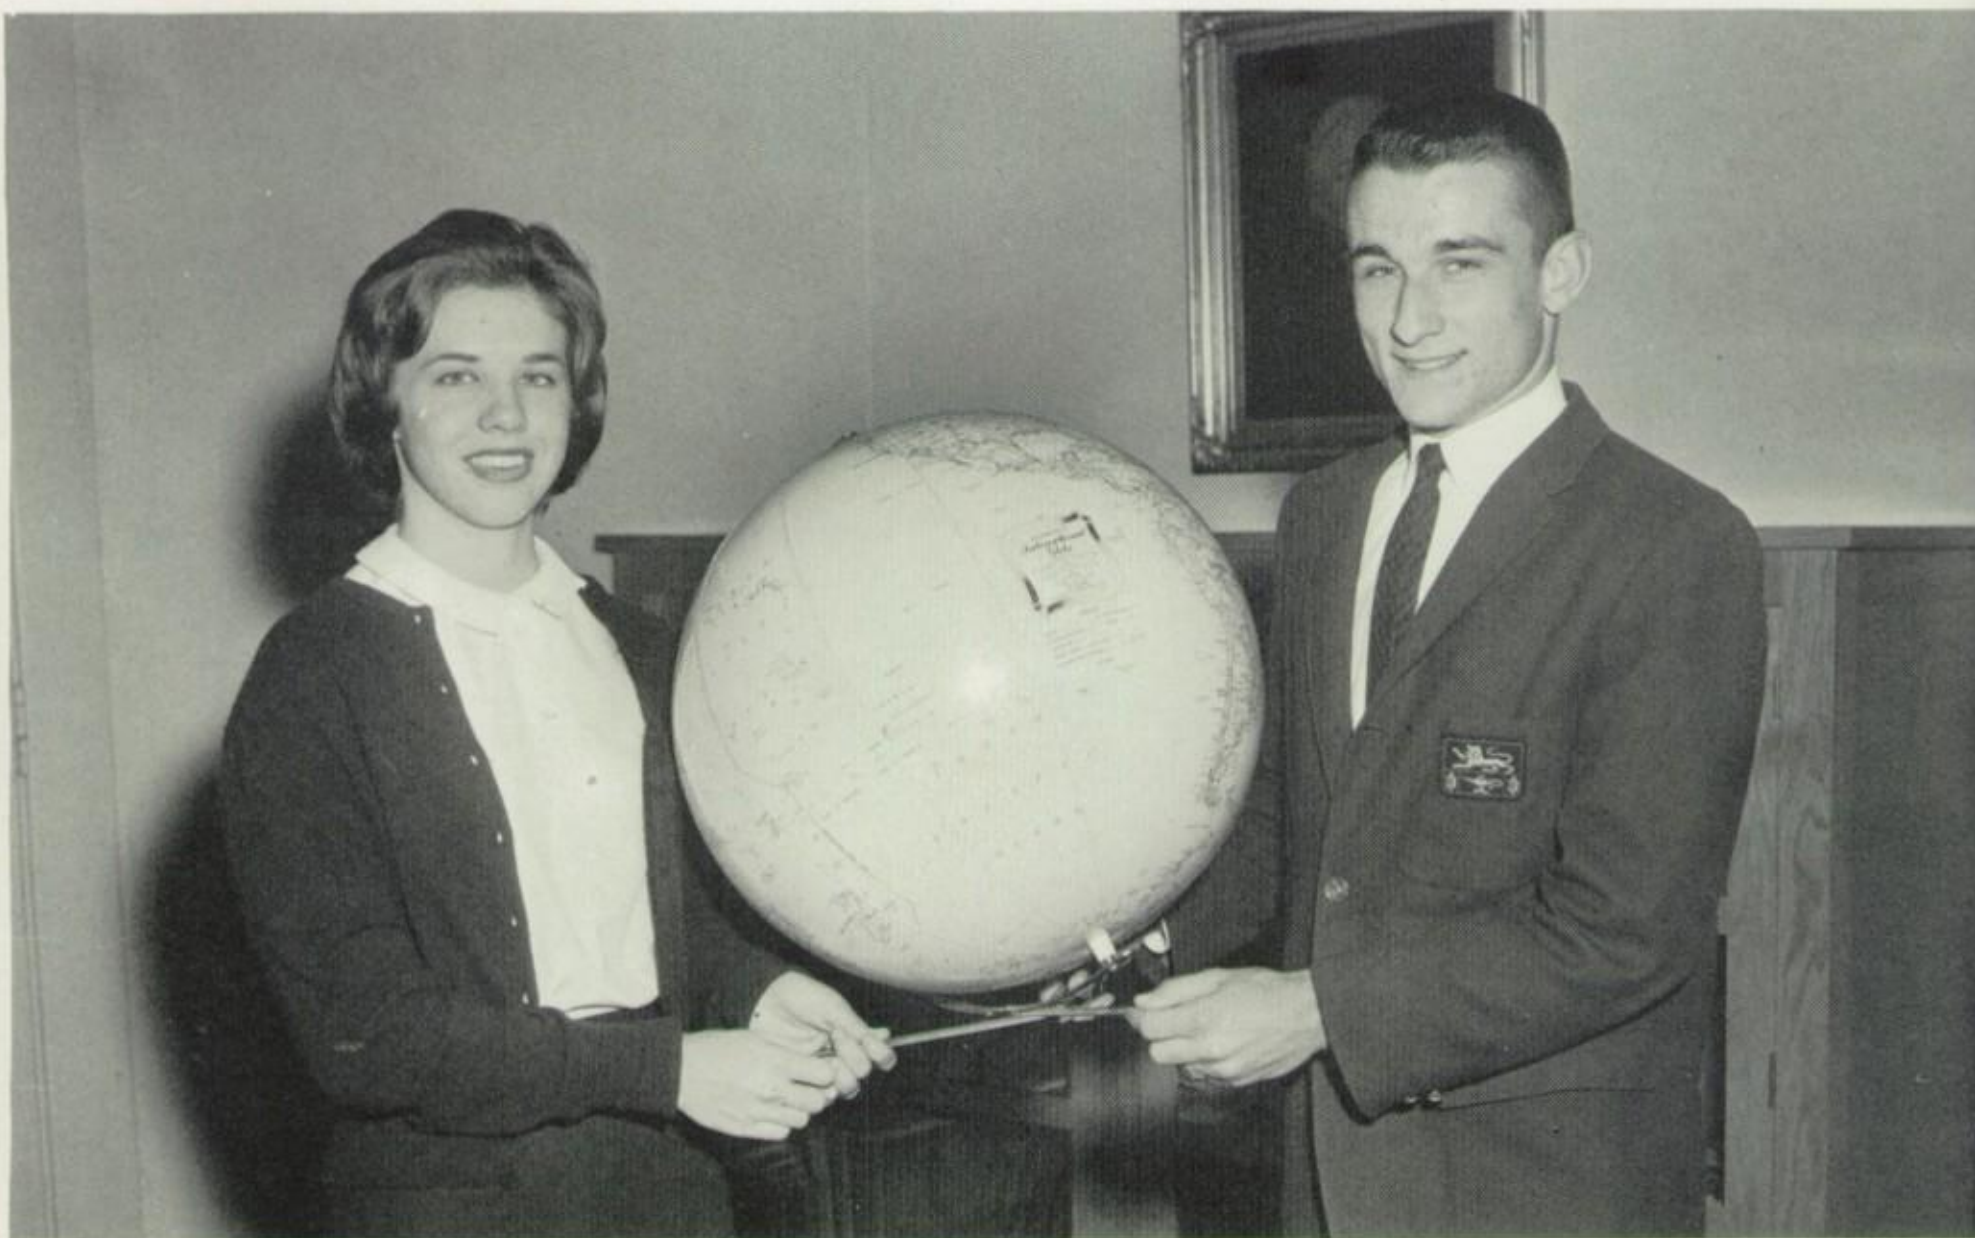

Aurelia Caudle and Eddie Yount are noted for their good manners and mature behavior; therefore they were selected MOST COURTEOUS by their fellow Seniors.

Cheering their team on, even in defeat, Frances Martin and Blake Martin were voted as having the BEST SCHOOL SPIRIT from the Senior Class.

Senior

Because of their varied interests and abilities, Mary Pat Evans and Andrew Sims were chosen as the Seniors best fitting the title of BEST-ALL-AROUND.

The Cinderella and the Prince Charming from the Senior Class of 1962 are Judy Patten and Bobby Johnson. Their good looks and attractiveness won for them the title of BEST,LOOKING.

Jo Ann Aydt and Keith Clark were chosen by their classmates as CUTEST. Their cute actions and their pleasant personalities copped this superlative for them.

Mickie Stanley and Sidney Hensley are always dressed attractively and appropriately for any occasion; thus they were voted BEST DRESSED by the Senior Class.

Lunch Room Helpers

Maids

The lunch room helpers and the maids of Graham High School are to be commended for their excellent services to the student body.

Act III

Features

Miss G. H. S.

Miss Cathy Smith

Pageant

Cathy Smith sings for her talent, "The Day That the Rains Came Down" in English and in French.

Pam Meredith resembles a "dancing doll" as she taps to a lively version of "On the Street Where You Live."

Miss 21, Gail Whittemore, appears to be calm as she answers one of the two questions asked to her, after having been chosen as one of the five finalists.

Miss Millicent Basden, Miss G. H. S.-1961, crowns the lovely Miss G. H. S. -1962, Cathy Smith. Miss 21, Gail Whittemore, was runner-up. Miss Pamela Meredith was first runner-up; Miss Candy Jarrette was second runner-up, and Miss Judy DeBruler was third runner-up.

Paradise of the Deep

Jr.-Sr. Prom 1961

A beautiful underwater paradise was constructed by the Junior Class of 1961 to honor the Senior Class of 1961. The Seniors entered the watery fantasy land through the mouth of a large pink and white fish. They stepped from the fish's mouth into a bubbling wonderland of seaweed, shipwrecks, and giant oyster shells. There they spent a lovely evening of eating, dancing, and socializing.

This beautiful light blue ship-wrecked vessel, built by the Junior Class boys, was named for a Junior Class sponsor, Mrs. Loretta Samuels.

This hazy underwater scene shows an old treasure chest filled with precious jewels. Glittering drift wood and "kissing fish" make up the fantasy background for the chest.

Mary Hurdle Jeffreys and Donnie Kay Ezzell sang a duet during the program of the evening.

The pretty sophomore waitresses worked hard serving the Juniors, Seniors, and faculty members at the buffet table.

Prom Royalty

The prom progressed; memories were being made that would make April 14, 1961 a remembered date in the minds of all the Juniors and Seniors at G. H. S. From the Senior Class, Johnnie Stephens and Jerry DeBruler were chosen to reign as queen and king of the prom.
